THURSDAY, MAY 19, 1927
"Emerson's remark about a house in the woods, where better still is made, was certainly prophetic." Florence (Ala.) Herald.

Many registrars set Tuesday to register voters. No notice of the date was given and there were few people registered. However, the registrars will accommodate all who apply to register any day before primary.

Chief Justice D. Graff, in reviewing an action for separate maintenance, says: "In the case of the matrimonial relations involved herein, should we characterize the conduct, disposition, and temperment of defendant by use of adjectives, it may be said that he has been dominating and arbitrary to a point of tyranny, unsympathetic to a point of cold-bloodedness, unkind to a point of cruelty, stubborn to a point of absolute obstinacy, uncommunicative to a point of silence, parsimonious to a point of niggardliness."

Buckingham County

Notice has been given to holders of six months warrants on the treasury of Buckingham that they will be paid on presentation at the treasurer's office, which is good news to those to whom these time warrants were issued in a case of emergency. The money from the sale of the county bonds is now available for payment of outstanding school indebtedness.

Percy Burnley is held in jail here without bail charged with cutting Jenkins Wright with an axe. He was indicted by the grand jury which met here last week and his trial got off until it is known whether young Wright will recover. Jennings or Jenkins Wright has been removed from Hardy's Hospital in Farmville to Memorial Hospital in Richmond, where it is said his condition is still serious.

Never since the days when vote in this county were nearly equal as between the democratic and republican parties has there been any such a fight as is being waged before the holding of the August primary. Perhaps the liveliest contest is for the township, where Dr. G. L. Morris, incumbent, is opposed by H. E. Griffin, who is now sheriff.

W. J. Hubard, incumbent, is opposed by John D. Beabright for the county clerkship. The two commissioners of revenue, Camden and Wood, are opposing candidates under the new law, which only admits of one commissioner in each county, and S. J. Holman is also a candidate.

For sheriff, Patrick Fannon, J. R. Shoff, Norman Hughes, Marshall Claiborne and it is said a fifth man.

For supervisor in Mayville district, Thomas B. Hall, incumbent, is opposed by W. A. Baird. For supervisor of Francisco district, C. H. Jones, incumbent, is opposed by George Elean. Several of the other supervisors have opposition.

Colonel Albert J. Terrill and D. M. Gannaway opposing candidates for the nomination to represent Buckingham and Appomattox in the legislature. Claude R. Wood, who was a member of the last legislature, is a candidate for the nomination as attorney for the commonwealth and so he has no announced opposition.

A. C. Wood is a candidate to succeed himself as supervisor in James River district and so far he is without opposition. Mr. Wood is chairman of the board of supervisors and has been for many consecutive terms. News Correspondent.

EVERGREEN

The cool weather of the last week has kept the gardens back very much and will make them very late.

The road force has put our road in a fine shape and now the men of the community are busy selling it. So with all good roads leading to Evergreen, we hope to see business pick up and the town grow.

Mr. Elijah Glover continues ill at his home near here, his friends hope to see him out again soon.

Mrs. W. D. Griggs, of Hopeville, who has been visiting her home people here returned to her home. She was accompanied by her brother, Mr. Jimmie Evans and mother, Mrs. J. O. Evans.

Mr. Sam Ransom, who was called to the Lynchburg hospital Sunday afternoon where he underwent a very serious operation. We hope this good old veteran will come out all right and soon return home.

Mrs. Sallie B. Cavthon is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. Lee. On May 14th our heavenly Father in His all wise providence called the faithful wife of Mr. Henry Simmons from a service on earth to a fuller and more glorious life within, who doeth all things well. She is survived by her husband and four daughters and two sons. Her remains were interred in the cemetery at Rocks Church. Services were conducted by Rev. W. G. Boggs, and Rev. E. F. Burnett. Pall-bearers were: A. K. Simmons, R. F. Simmons, E. L. Simmons, N. W. Simmons, W. R. Austin and R. L. Jennings. The floral designs which were beautiful were carried by friends of the family. We extend to the bereaved family our sympathy and pray that the consolation of God's comfort may ever be with them.

PAMPLIN

Mrs. E. H. Woodall left Saturday morning for a trip through the Valley of Virginia, where she will visit her sons.

A splendid sermon was rendered to a large crowd by Rev. O. M. Clark Sunday morning at Olive Branch Church.

Mr. George Carter, of Lynchburg, was guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Woodall Sunday.

Misses Irene and Zada Woodall, Messrs. Jack Swan, George Carter and Richard Whitehead, were in the city Sunday, enroute to Lynchburg Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard Hoge spoke at the Methodist church on Tuesday night on "Prohibition." Rev. Hoge emphasized the importance of enforcing the law and casting the ballot for "dry" officials.

Revs. and Mrs. Hoge are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Peterson.

Those who attended the Eastern Star meeting in Danville last week were Mrs. Brightwell, Mrs. Curtis Harvey, Dr. and Mrs. McCull.

The Epworth League went on a picnic Tuesday evening out to the beautiful lawn of Mrs. J. B. Cole and had a bounteous supper and enjoyed the time very much.
